Q & A

ONLINE ORAL PRESENTATIONS

1Q: What format should my online presentation be in?

A: Presentations should be submitted as PDF files via email so our team can prepare them in advance.

Q: How long is my presentation slot?

A: You will have 10 minutes for your presentation and 5 minutes for Q&A.

Q: How will my presentation be delivered?

A: Your slides will be displayed by our team. You can simply guide them to move to the next slide while you speak.

Q: Do I need to have my webcam on during the presentation?

A: Yes. Please keep both your microphone and webcam active. Make sure to use a stable internet connection, good lighting, and a clean background.

Q: Will I need a username and password to join the room?

A: Yes. All registered participants will receive their login credentials by email before the conference.

Q: Will my presentation be recorded and published?

A: Yes. All sessions will be recorded and posted on our YouTube channel after the event.

Q: Will my abstract or paper be published?

A: Yes. Your abstract/paper will be included in the abstract book with ISBN and published in our official journals with a DOI (International Journal of BioLife Sciences (ISSN: 2821-1642) or International Journal of BioMed Insights (ISSN: 3041-9107) .

Q: Will I receive a certificate for presenting?

A: Yes. You will receive a certificate confirming your active participation.

Q: Can I switch my oral presentation to a poster presentation instead?

A: If you prefer to present a poster, please contact the organizing team to request a format change.

IN-PERSON ORAL PRESENTATIONS

Q: What format should my in-person presentation be in?

A: You may submit your presentation as a PDF file via email so our team can prepare it in advance. However, if you prefer to use a PowerPoint (PPT) file, you are welcome to share that with us as well—we will include it in the conference program and ensure it is saved on our system for easy use during your session.

Q: How long is my presentation slot?

A: You will have 10 minutes for your presentation and 5 minutes for Q&A.

Q: How will my presentation be delivered?

A: Your slides will be projected by our team. You can guide them to move to the next slide as needed. If you prefer to operate the slides yourself (especially with a PPT file), that is absolutely fine.

Q: Do I need to join the conference platform or virtual room?

A: No. As an in-person participant, you do not need to join the online platform.

Q: Will my presentation be recorded and published?

A: Yes. All sessions will be recorded and later uploaded to our YouTube channel.

Q: What materials will I receive as an in-person participant?

A: All in-person attendees will receive:

🛍️ A conference bag

📖 A printed abstract book and program book

🎫 A badge and lunch coupon

Q: Can I switch my oral presentation to a poster presentation instead?

A: Yes, if you prefer to present a poster, please contact the organizing team.

Q & A

IN-PERSON POSTER PRESENTATION FORMAT

Q: I'm attending in person. Will I present my poster on-site?

A: All poster presentations will be provided as pre-recorded videos to support our green standards and reduce paper usage. However, if you would like to bring a paper poster, you are welcome to do so—it is completely optional.

Q: Who prepares the video for my poster presentation?

A: Our conference team will prepare the video using the materials you have submitted.

Q: When will the videos be shown?

A: The videos will be displayed during the conference and will be open for discussion with session chairs and attendees.

Q: Will the videos be available after the conference?

A: Yes. All poster presentation videos will be uploaded to our official YouTube channel after the event.

Q: Will my poster presentation be recorded and published?

A: Yes. All poster presentations will be recorded and later uploaded to our YouTube channel.
